WORDS OF KINDNESS.

How softly on the bruised heart
A word of kindness falls,
And to the dry and parched soul
The moistening tear-drop calls!
Oh, if they knew who walked the earth
'Mid sorrow, grief and pain,
The power a word of kindness hath,
'Twere paradise again.

The weakest and the poorest may
The simple pittance give,
And bid delight to withered hearts
Return again and live.
Oh, what is life if love be lost?
If man's unkind to man,—
Or, what the heaven that waits beyond
This brief and mortal span?

As stars upon the tranquil sea
In mimic glory shine,
So words of kindness in the heart
Reflect the source divine.
Oh, then be kind, whoe'er thou art
That breathest mortal breath,
And it shall brighten all thy life,
And sweeten even death.

AN ENOCH ARDEN—SINGULAR HISTORY OF THE BATTLE OF CHICKAMAUGA.

A gentleman who witnessed the play of Enoch Arden at DeBar's Opera House, St. Louis, relates a circumstance very similar in its details to the sad story of the castaway sailor. We give the statement in his own words: "That play recalls to my mind a circumstance that happened in my own experience. A sergeant in my regiment was wounded at Chickamauga, and was reported dead. He was seen to fall in the heat of the engagement, and our lines being pushed back, the body was not discovered until next day. When the poor fellow was found, he was so mutilated by being trampled on by the cavalry, that his face could not be recognized. A comrade, however, found in his breast pocket a miniature of his wife, and sent it to her, with an account of his death. It turned out that the body was not that of Tom C——, but a sergeant of another company. Tom, desperately wounded, fell into the hands of the enemy, and was sent to Andersonville, where the rebel surgeon cut off one of his arms and one of his legs, and in spite of his bad fare, he recovered in due time. I never knew why they kept Tom so long in prison, except it was for the purpose of exchanging him for a sound man.

"When poor Tom returned to his home in Pennsylvania, he was a mere wreck of his former self, and nobody in the village knew him. His wife had removed to Illinois with her parents more than a year previously. Without making himself known to any of his old acquaintances in the village, Tom started for Illinois to hunt for his wife. When he had arrived in the neighborhood where she was living, he learned she was married to an old friend of his, who had followed her from Pennsylvania. His first impulse was to make himself known to her and claim her as his own; but when he saw the snug cabin in which she was living, and heard how kindly she was treated by her husband, he changed his mind. 'Suppose I go and claim her,' he said to himself; 'how can I support her? What can I do for her, with only one arm and one leg, and a body weakened by months of suffering at Andersonville? No; she is happy and contented, and thinks me dead, and I will not destroy her happiness and become a burden to her.'

"Tom acted upon this resolution, and worked his way to New York, where he set up a small business as a curb-stone merchant, selling nuts, and cakes, and soda water, and getting along prosperously. He soon made money enough to buy him an artificial leg, and after a while he got a patent arm made, and to see him walking along the street, you would not suppose that he was but little more than half a man. He was a good business man, and in the course of a year enlarged his stock in trade and opened a regular retail grocery. He made money fast, and became a prosperous merchant respected by all who knew him.

"In his prosperity he never forgot his wife, and always cherished hope that she would be restored to him. He was a regular subscriber to the village paper published at the town near which his wife lived, and read it with great interest. One day he saw in this paper the announcement of the death of the man who had married his wife. He found no time in starting for Illinois. He found his wife in deep mourning for her late husband, and she had added another infantile link to the family circle. Tom made himself known to her, and was rejoiced to find that she still loved him as fondly as ever. It was sometime before he could convince her that he was a ghost returned from the other world. In order to make things sure the parson was called in, and Tom and his wife were married over again. They went to New York, where they are still living, as happy a couple as you will find in Gotham. They live in a brown stone front, and the family, when I saw them, were preparing to add another little link to its circle. Of course they do not tell everybody about their family matters, but you can rely upon this story as strictly true. This ending is rather better than that of Enoch Arden, and I think Adams would do a good thing if he would depart from the version of Tennyson, and in the last act get Philip Ray ground up in his own mill—accidently, of course—make poor Enoch step in and enjoy the wife and the fortune left behind."

"What about the picture of Tom's wife found in the pocket of the dead soldier?"

"Oh, I forgot about that. Tom says when she was wounded and left upon the field a straggler came along, and he stopped him. Supposing he would bleed to death, he gave the picture to the straggler, with a message for his wife. The rebel cavalry made a charge soon after, and killed the straggler, with the picture of Tom's wife in his bosom, and carried Tom off to Andersonville. That accounts for the picture being found and causing everybody to believe that Tom was killed."

There was something unexpectedly sarcastic in the recent reply of a criminal, when asked by the court if he was guilty of larceny. "How say you then?" (Prisoner," said the astonished magistrate, "don't you know any more than to say I'll send you down for one or two years?" "Look a-here, squire, am you guilty?" "And I tell you once!" "But the man says he detected you in the very act of larceny." "Yes, sir, but I was fooling him." "Fooling him? How do you make that out?" "Just making believe, as you do sometimes." "Sir, what do you mean?" "Why the other night, when you were staggering on the street, some fellers thought you were tight, but I knew you were only making believe."

A Scotsman, inquiring what he got his father to say, was told, "Why, sir, he says, 'Ye've got a gey wheen o' bairns, Sandy.'" "Well, what can I help it?" "Then he says, 'Ye'll be puttin' your eyes out wi' the reek.'" "Well, can't help it." "Then he says, 'Ye'll be unbuttoned.'"

INCOME RETURNS.

The following compilation from decisions of the Internal Revenue Laws, affecting Incomes, was prepared by William E. Barber, Assessor of the 7th District, for the information of his deputies. We publish them for the information of our readers who have incomes to be assessed.

WHAT MUST BE RETURNED.

Income, Interest, and Profit from all Sources, for the Year ending December 31st, 1869.

1.—Income.

Of Citizens of the United States, resident or non-resident. Of Foreigners residing in this Country. Of Husband, of Wife, of Minor Child, or Children.

1. From Annuities, notwithstanding the Legacy or Succession tax may have been paid.

2. From Legacies, from the time they have been paid to Legatees, by Executors, Guardians, or other Trustees.

3. Of Decedents, Lunatics, Habitual Drunkards, Cestui que Trust, from January 1, 1869, to the date of death of the Decedent, or the appointment of Committee, or Trustees.

4. From Estates in charge of Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Committees of Lunatics and Habitual Drunkards, and Trustees, from the date of appointment to December 31, 1869; this includes accumulated interest.

5. Members of the same family having separate incomes may return them separately.

If a Minor Child is in the service of the Government, receiving a salary, the Parent should return so much of the salary of the child as is exempt from tax.

1.—Interest.

1. From Mortgages, Judgments, Bonds and Promissory Notes.
2. From Capital and Deposits.
3. From United States Bonds or other Securities.

The Star & Sentinel.

Friday, March 11, 1870.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

THE general use of "waiver" notes, by which the beneficent aims of the $300 Exemption act are frustrated, is attracting the attention of the Legislature, and will probably result in the passage of an act taking away from the debtor the right to waive the provisions of the exemption law. That law was not originally designed for the sole benefit of the debtor, but was intended to protect the wife and family of the improvident debtor from the sweeping demands of creditors. Like the $300 provision in decedent's estates, its aim was to prevent the breaking up households, to maintain inviolate the debtor's home by exempting from levy and sale a reasonable amount of property necessary to the comfort of his family. Hence a waiver by the debtor practically defeats the beneficent aims of the act. If the prejudicial consequences of this waiving of the provisions of the exemption act fell upon the improvident debtor himself, there would be no great wrong; but the trouble is that they reach the innocent wife and children, who are made the victims of reckless debtors and heartless creditors. A bill to make it illegal in future to waive the exemption laws has been reported in the House, with the approval of the Judiciary Committee, and we hope it may become a law.

MR. CESSNA, the member of this district, is after his predecessor, Hon. A. H. Coffroth. On Monday, in the House, he offered a resolution investigating the Military Committee to investigate the appointment of a young man from Boston to the West Point Academy, and another from the same place to the Naval Academy, from the Sixteenth Pennsylvania district. The object of the resolution is to investigate two appointments made by Mr. Coffroth when he represented the district in the House. It is alleged that these appointments were made for monetary considerations. The resolution provided that the parties implicated should be permitted to appear and vindicate themselves. As this was in direct conflict with the order of the House, adopted a few days ago, instructing the committee not to investigate charges against persons not now members of the House, it met with considerable opposition, and finally went over with the expiration of the morning hour.— It is the intention of Mr. Cessna to bring it up again and press it to a vote.

THE Methodist Episcopal Church South needs a little re-construction.— The Baltimore Conference of the Church North, in session at Frederick, Md., on Monday sent the fraternal greetings of that body to the Conference of the Church South, in session at Baltimore, and delegated Rev. Henry Slicer and Rev. Mr. Bear to convey the greetings. The latter body, however, after gravely deliberating over the matter, unanimously declined to recognize the body in session at Frederick, ordering that Messrs. Slicer and Bear be received, not officially, but as Christian men and ministers—whereupon the latter picked up their hats and left for Frederick, declining to accept personally a courtesy which was denied the body they represented. The Church South went off on stilts during the war, and has not yet learned to dispense with the stilty habits then contracted. These repeated conciliatory efforts are as creditable to the Church North, as their rude repulses are discreditable to the Church South.

THE New Hampshire Election on Tuesday resulted in another signal Republican triumph. There were four tickets in the field, Republican, Democratic, Labor Reform and Temperance. Stearns (Republican) will have a majority over the combined votes of the other three candidates. Returns from 262 towns give Stearns 32,987, Bedel 22,864, Flint, 6,898, and Barrows 1,159.— Both branches of the Legislature will be largely Republican.

Last year Stearn's majority over Bedel, the Democratic candidate, was 3,773—the voting standing, Stearns 35,777, Bedel 32,004. In 1868 the Republican majority was 2,523. This year the contest was complicated by the Labor Reform and Temperance organizations. The fact that Stearns carries a clear majority of the popular vote, beating all his competitors, is a gratifying evidence of the essential fidelity of the Granite State to Republican principles.

SECRETARY BOUTWELL is reported as opposed to a repeal or reduction of the income tax. Notwithstanding which we hope that Congress will wipe it out. At best, it is an offensive, inquisitorial system of taxation, leading to perjury and fraud, and unequal in that honest men make honest returns and pays full taxes, while the dishonest shirk the law and evade taxation. As a war measure, it was justifiable; with the return of peace it should be discontinued, or so modified as to make the exemption at least $2,000.

A BILL to repeal the act of the last session of the Legislature, combining the spring and fall elections, passed to third reading in the House, last week. We see no reason for its repeal. The law worked well at the last election, and its provisions will be better understood in future. It is a great saving of election officers' fees, and insures a better class of township officers than we have had heretofore. We hope this retrograde movement will be stopped in the Senate.

DESPATCHES from Washington represent that in view of the rapid decline in gold, a number of banks have announced their willingness to resume specie payments on their circulation, but not on deposits. The Government, however, has determined to let matters take their course, while continuing the policy under which the national credit has been steadily rising and gold falling.

GOLD is still "tumbling," under President Grant's prudent and economical Administration. On Wednesday it touched 110¼, being a fall of 22¾ since March 4, when Grant went into office. On the same day Government Bonds brought a higher premium than gold, the sixes of 1881 selling for $114. So much for Republican Administration.

The excitement in the Gold Room and on Wall street is said by the New York papers to have been unprecedented since the great gold conspiracy of last September. The frantic but fruitless efforts of the "bull" cliques to prevent the present decline are accepted as evidence of a coming crash, consequent on a further decline.

THE Congressional Committee, through Gen. Garfield, Chairman, has made an elaborate report of the investigations into the great gold conspiracy of last September. The Report completely exhonorates the President and members of his family, as well as his Cabinet, from all complicity in the operations of the gold gamblers. The conspiracy was engineered by Gould & Fisk, of New York, backed by lesser lights of the gold ring, their purpose being to buy up a large amount of gold, create a "corner" in the market, force up the premium, and then sell out at high figures. To carry out this scheme it was essential that the conspirators should know the financial purposes of the Administration, and prevent, if possible, the Government from throwing any surplus gold into the market pending the operations of the gamblers. Gould & Fisk admit to having interviewed the President again and again, at Long Branch, on steamboats, or railroad trains, and at hotels, during his pleasure trips last fall; but in consequence of his constitutional reticence they were unable to get anything out of him, as to his views or purposes.— Thus failing the conspirators determined to take into their confidence Mr. Corbin, a wealthy New York speculator, who happens to be a brother-in-law of the President, having married his sister. Corbin, who is a greedy, reckless stock operator, took the bait promptly, professed to have great influence with the President, and promised not only to keep the gamblers posted as to the financial policy of the administration, but to bring the President into accord with their plans. He pretended to be in correspondence with the President, and to give plausibility to his professions, gave out that he was authorized by Mrs. Grant to carry a large amount of gold on her account in the contemplated speculation.— Gould & Fisk were completely deceived by these representations, and Fisk swears that he handed Corbin $25,000 to be paid to Mrs. Grant on account of profits already realized on a rising gold market. So matters went on, until the bubble suddenly burst, by the President ordering a large amount of surplus gold to be thrown on the market, to break the combination which had forced gold up to 163. The effect was crushing, gold falling in a few hours to 133, involving most of the gold gamblers in ruin. Then came bitter denunciations of Corbin, who, under oath, shamelessly testified before the Committee that all his dealings with Gould & Fisk were fraudulent—that the alleged correspondence with the President was all a sham—that neither the President nor Mrs. Grant knew anything about his operations—that he himself pocketed the $25,000 paid to him by Fisk ostensibly for Mrs. Grant's use—that he knew Fisk to be a grand villain, who would cheat him (Corbin) if he had a chance, and hence he thought he had a right to cheat Fisk! It is difficult to say from this development who is the more audacious villain, Fisk or Corbin. But is gratifying to know that the President, his family and Cabinet, passed unscathed through the cunningly devised snares and plots to entrap them, and that there remains not the least shadow of suspicion as to their complicity in the movements of the gold ring. Indeed, Corbin testifies that Mrs. Grant, during the ferment consequent upon the sudden rise of gold in September, wrote to her sister (Mrs. Corbin) expressing the hope that Mr. C. was not involved in the movement. Fisk happened to see this letter on Corbin's table, and says it aroused the first suspicion as to Corbin's duplicity.

A NOVEL question was before the lower House of Congress on Monday. Mr. Golladay, of Kentucky, last week resigned to escape action in the matter of the sale of Cadet appointments.— The Governor of Kentucky having refused to accept the resignation, Mr. Golladay applied to the Speaker to have his resignation returned to him. The Speaker declined, on the ground that the resignation was complete, and that the Governor of Kentucky had no control over members of Congress and no right to pass on their qualifications. The matter came up in the House on Monday, on a motion to refer the subject matter to the Judiciary Committee. After a brief discussion, in which Gov. Stevenson's assumption was sharply rebuked, the motion was ruled out of order, and the Speaker sustained without a division. The House holds that Congress alone has the right to pass on the qualifications of members. The Judiciary Committee, however, was instructed to report a rule to settle the question whether a member has a right to resign without the consent of the House. In Golladay's case, the resignation was held to bar all further action by the House; but a number of the ablest members hold that the precedent is a bad one.

BALTIMORE City on Tuesday approved the ordinance of the City Council to endorse bonds of the Western Maryland Railroad Company to the amount of $1,400,000—the vote standing, for approval 7,218, against 2,030. As the ordinance had previously been approved by the Legislature, this vote settles the question and ensures the early completion of the road to Hagerstown.

THE rapid decline of gold has induced a number of business houses in the cities to resume specie payments on a small scale. Among others, Wanamaker & Brown, of Philadelphia, dealers in Ready-Made Clothing, have commenced to pay out specie, in change, instead of fractional currency.

PUELLO, the commanding officer of the Spanish forces in Cuba, is a full-blooded negro, born and raised in St. Domingo. He now holds the high commission of major general in the Spanish army, and is the third ranking officer on duty in Cuba. In appearance he is a strong, muscular man, six feet high, broad-shouldered, and coal-black. General Puello's staff is composed entirely of white officers, representing some of the proudest blood of Spain. Should De Rodas and Valmaseda through the chances of war both be killed, removed or disabled, Puello, by virtue of his rank, would take command of the Island of Cuba. We may add that this African soldier is noted for his fighting and his conspicuous prowess in the field.

A PEASANT went into a large city, and, among other objects that struck his fancy, he was arrested by a banking office, where he saw people go out and in, without getting any goods, apparently, as in other shops. He ventured to enter and ask the teller what was sold there. "Asses' heads," was the sneering answer. "What a business you must have!" said the rustic, "I see you have but one left."

AT Elkhart, Indiana, last week Mrs. Maguire, in a drunken frenzy, threw a lighted kerosene lamp at her husband. The lamp exploded, setting fire to the house and the husband's clothing. The house and its contents were destroyed, and Maguire was burned to death. The woman has not been arrested.

AN awkward man, attempting to carve a goose, dropped it on the floor. "There now," exclaimed his wife, "we've lost our dinner!" "Oh, no, my dear," answered he, "it is safe—I have got my foot on it."

GENERAL Butler has appointed Charles Sumner Wilson, of Salem, Mass., a colored boy, to a cadetship at West Point. He is the first colored boy ever appointed to a cadetship at either the Naval or Military Academy.

A LITTLE shcool-boy, out West, presented his teacher the following note from home as an excuse for tardiness: "Baby cross Biscuit to Bake Had no Baken powders the dog upset the coffee pot the cat licked in the Milk and got up late Excuse."

THE American Churchman, an Episcopalian journal, states that Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis, has signed the protest of the French and German bishops arguing against the expediency of declaring the infallibility of the Pope to be an article of faith.

A GIRL in Chester, Vt., died a few days ago from tight lacing. For several months previous to her death, this poor victim had been obliged to sleep with corsets on, and tightened to the last notch; for the loosening gave such pain, internally, that she could not bear it.

A LITTLE boy inquired at the Augusta post office recently, if there was a letter for Chester Pillsbury, and while the clerk was looking for the letter, and the little fellow, thinking to help him in his search, said: —"He is married now, and I 'spose they put Mister onto his name!"

THE SHOPPE CASE.—The necessary action is being taken to have the Shoppe case brought before the Supreme Court again, under the law which recently passed both Houses of the Legislature over the Governor's veto. Under this law, the court will be obliged to review the testimony.

WE are getting along bravely. In Utah, woman has the ballot. In Pennsylvania she has the breeches. In Britain, she is making a famous fight for the tobacco box. In New York, she has her club-house. In Chicago, she goes for the adversary with a cow-hide. Is there anything else to come?

A NEW YORK paper publishes an absurb story to the effect that Napoleon died six months since, that the Prince Imperial is reigning as Napoleon IV, that Napoleon is represented by a man bearing a wonderful resemblance to him, and lastly that the fraud is countenanced by England and Russia.

REV. Dr. McClintock, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at his residence in New Jersey at half-past seven o'clock Monday morning. Dr. McClintock has lost some time past been the popular President of Drew Theological Seminary. He was considered the ripest scholar within the bounds of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

GOVERNOR Stevenson, of Kentucky, has telegraphed to Mr. Golladay, refusing to accept his resignation as a member of the House of Representatives, and saying that duty to his State, his constituents and his honor, demands a full investigation of the charge against him in relation to the sale of a cadetship, by the only tribunal to which he is amenable under the circumstances.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—The tea traffic over the Pacific Railroad is increasing, and destined to be a source of great revenue in the future. One thousand packages of the tea, cargo of the ship Benefactress, at San Francisco, have gone forward to Chicago, by rail; the remaining 10,000 packages are ordered to be shipped to New York by the consignees, A. A. Low & Co.

THE present population of the United States has been variously "guessed" at 40,000,000 to 45,000,000, and more sanguine patriots talk of 50,000,000 now and 200,000,000 within a generation or two. A carefully prepared estimate published in the New York Tribune, of Saturday, gives 40,800,000, as the probable population on June 1st, 1870, when the ninth census is to be taken. This is an increase of over 9,000,000 in the last ten years. In the Tribune's estimate Pennsylvania is put down at 3,835,000—an increase of 978,785 over 1860. New York is estimated at 4,600,000, or an increase of only 719,985. Ohio is estimated at 2,850,000 and Illinois at 2,600,000.

THE LARGEST HOG IN THE WORLD.—The American Republican, published at West Chester, says: On Monday last, Mr. Jefferson Shaner, of West Chester slaughtered the largest hog of which we have any record. The hog was a Chester White, and was two years and five months old. It measured six feet and ten inches from the root of the tail to between the ears, seven feet and three inches in girth just behind the fore-legs, and seven feet and nine inches around the middle. The head weighed 74 lbs; and the weight of the whole hog, neatly dressed, was ten hundred and forty pounds. Good judges estimated that he would make six hundred pounds of lard! He was a good feeder, and we are assured that for the last four months, he did not drink any water. It was purchased by Messrs. Pusner & Martin, at 13 cents per pound, making $134 80. A pretty round sum for one hog.

FROM EUROPE.

LONDON, March 7.—The Pall Mall Gazette approves of Mr. Gladstone's Land bill, but thinks that the question of anarchy in Ireland is the first duty of the Government.

Great preparations are making in the North of Ireland for the reception of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

MADRID, March 7.—In the Constituent Cortes on Saturday General Prim reaffirmed his opposition to the Duke of Montpensier, and declared that the entire Ministry, with the exception of Admiral Topete, were anti-Imperialists. This statement has given the latter gentleman offence. He has tendered his resignation, but it has not yet been accepted. The Unionists are furious against General Prim, and are doing their utmost to encourage Admiral Topete. A Ministerial crisis is imminent.

LONDON, March 7.—Despatches from Rome report that the opponents of the dogma of infallibility in the Council, some of whom had threatened to withdraw, have determined to remain in view of the growing opposition among the Fathers.

DUBLIN, March 8.—The Irish Times asserts that the Government will soon issue orders suspending the writ of habeas corpus in Ireland.

PARIS, March 8.—Religious organs here have advices from Rome which represent that the Pope, in response to a request of a great majority of the Bishops, has distributed among the members of the Council a scheme proposing definition of the dogma of infallibility, with a notice that the suggestions of the Fathers on the same will be received until the the 7th instant.

Despatches from other sources add to this intelligence, that in consequence of the introduction of this scheme, the French Government has made a demand on the Papal Court that a special envoy of France be permitted to assist at the Council; also, that Cardinal Antonelli has acknowledged the receipt of the demand and promised to answer in a few days.

The Ultramontane journal, Le Monde, states positively that the Pope has required the Œcumencial Council to fix upon a definition of personal infallibility within a week.

A WOMAN AND HER CHILD ALL NIGHT IN THE SNOW.—In the great snow storm of the 15th of February last, Mrs. Nathaniel Moody left Lewiston with a horse and pung for her home in Auburn, on the westerly side of Taylor Pond. She had in her arms a child two years of age. On reaching the pond she attempted to drive across to shorten the distance, but lost the track, and after driving around in a circle for an hour or more, it being dark and cold, she decided to stop where she was and make the best of the situation. Wrapping the child up in two buffalo robes which she fortunately had, she unharnessed the horse and turned him loose. She then tipped the pung up and made a temporary shelter beneath it, and wrapping the drapery of her couch about her, she laid down for the night. She made a pillow of her arm for the little child and with one robe beneath them and one above them, and the sheets of snow over and under all, they entered on a long, cold and desolate winter night. The snow drifted against the pung, and rendered her novel resting place warmer. Though her sleep was not untroubled with dreams, Mrs. Moody woke the next morning to find herself safe and the babe sleeping as sweetly on the fleecy snow as on downy pillows. A part of her arm had become exposed and had frozen, otherwise she was warm. The horse appeared at the homestead across the pond in the morning, and his presence revealed the trouble. Search was immediately made, and Mrs. Moody and her child were soon rescued. Such an exhibition of presence of mind and courage is rare.

A WIFE WHO WAS BADLY SOLD.—The Nord relates the following incident which has happened at Flessingue, in Holland: "A wife, exasperated by the continual drunkenness of her husband, threatened him with death. Some days ago she attempted to put this threat into execution. There was but an attic above the sitting-room. To this she ascended, made a hole in the floor and passed a rope through it, one end of which fell in the room below, while the other remained fastened in the attic. She then descended, made a slip-knot in the rope, and awaited her husband's return. He at last arrived, and was much surprised to receive no reproaches on his bad conduct. 'There is something underhand here,' thought he, 'I must see.' We must premise that this scene took place in complete darkness. The husband, whose suspicions were roused, let himself fall into a chair and appeared to sleep profoundly. After some musing he felt a rope pass around his neck; he then understood the little trick that was to be played, but did not move. His wife went up to the attic, and, taking advantage of this moment's respite, the drunkard relieved himself of his rope and fastened it to the foot of the stove, which soon went up the ceiling with a frightful noise, caused by the fall of some crockery which was standing upon it. The wife, thinking the noise was caused by the fruitless struggles of her husband, ran to the police office to declare that she had found her husband hung. The police arrived in hot haste, and a candle was lighted, when all started back at the spectacle which presented itself. The stove was swinging gracefully in space, and the husband sat gravely smoking his pipe. Instead of a suicide, an attempt to murder was established against the wife, who was arrested."

"PAPAL INFALLIBILITY."—At a time when so great interest is taken in the question of Papal infallibility, a declaration made some years ago by Archbishop Purcell, in a discussion with Alexander Campbell, is worth reprinting. The Archbishop said:

"Appeals were lodged before the Bishop of Rome though he was not believed to be infallible. Neither is he now. No enlightened Catholic holds the Pope's infallibility to be an article of faith. I do not, and none of my brethren, that I knew of, do. The Catholic believes the Pope, as a man, to be as liable to error as almost any man in the universe. Man is man, and the Pope is infallible, either in doctrine or morals. Many of the Popes have sinned, and some of them have been bad men. I presume my worthy antagonist will take his brush in hand, and roll up his sleeves, and lay it on them hard and heavy; so will I; and whenever he uses a strong epithet against them, I will use a stronger."

What the Archbishop then declared to be believed by no enlightened Catholic is now, according to the testimony of the Catholic World, the prevailing opinion among the Roman Catholic Bishops and theologians of this country.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—On the 23d ult., a lad of 15 years, adopted son of Mr. Henry Camp, of Tyrone township, this county, shot himself with a revolver, the ball entering his head between the eyes. When discovered, he was found lying with his head against the stove—one arm and one knee much burned. It is not known how the accident occurred.

FRANKLIN.—John B. Gough will lecture in Chambersburg on Thursday evening, March 31, on "Peculiar People," tickets 75 cts.— Burglars and incendiaries are at work in Mercersburg. Last week the shops of F. H. Johnson, gunsmith, and J. P. Starliper, saddler, were robbed. Late at night the latter shop was fired.—On Tuesday night, the 1st inst., Samuel son of Mr. John Linn, died very suddenly in Chambersburg. He was a bright lad, only thirteen years of age. During the day he had been at school and in the evening he was playing with some of his schoolmates. After returning home he complained of feeling sick, and died in a few hours.

FREDERICK.—At the recent term of the Frederick Court Mary Lorentz recovered a verdict of $1800 from William Remsburg, in a breach of promise suit, after 18 years courtship.—The dwelling of Upton J. Hammond, near Mountpleasant, was destroyed by fire on Friday last; the fire originating in a smoke house a few feet from the dwelling.—Last week at a public sale in Frederick, 55 shares of Farmers & Mechanics Bank stock brought $38.80 per share, and 15 shares of 1st National Bank @131; the par value of the former is $20, the latter $100.

WASHINGTON.—Simon Wolf, of Boonsboro', aged 50 years, died on Saturday night of heart disease. He had been in usual health and ate a piece of pie before retiring to bed; but soon after his wife's attention was arrested by a gurgling noise at her husband's throat, and on lighting a candle found him dead.

YORK.—Mrs. John S. Croll, York, while on her way to church on Sunday, slipped on the pavement breaking her leg in two places.—The Wrightsville Post Office was robbed on Saturday night.

TAKING THE CENSUS.—Applications for appointment as census-takers are becoming numerous, and the Marshal is likely to have his hands full of this business for some time to come. As Congress has rejected all new plans, the census this year will be taken on the same basis as in 1850 and 1860. The law of 1850 provides that the census shall be taken by the United States Marshals of the respective districts, with the aid of such assistants as shall be required. Each State is divided into census districts, to be composed of not less than 20,000 persons. The assistants for taking the census are appointed and commissioned by the Marshal, and are paid their compensation as follows: two cents for every name taken, ten cents for every farm, fifteen cents for every productive establishment of industry, two cents for every deceased person, and two per cent. of the gross amount for names enumerated, for social statistics, and ten cents per mile for travel. The enumeration must begin on the first day of June, and the census must be completed and the returns all sent in to the Secretary of the Interior by the first of November following. The superintendent of the census is Francis A. Walker, late of the Bureau of Statistics, and Assistant Special Commissioner of Revenue. It will be seen by the foregoing that the compensation afforded an enumerator, providing the district allotted to him shall contain not less than 20,000 persons, would be $600 or more. The Marshal is forbidden by law to accept any bribe or consideration for an appointment for assistant, and is liable to $1000 fine, if he should be convicted of so doing.

THE Charleston (S. C.) News (Democratic) of the 3d instant, in an article commending on the admission of the new Senator, Mr. Revels, makes the following comment on the silly charge that the colored people are striving for social equality with the whites:

"This, at least, is sure. The colored people, as a class, do not desire that social distinctions should be obliterated. No people are more tenacious of social standing than themselves. In Liberia the lines of demarkation are drawn as rigorously as in the Courts of Europe. In this State they have drawn off into their own churches, their own free companies, their own benevolent associations, have more liberty and more enjoyment in these fraternities among their own race than in promiscuous societies. The race-instinct they cherish is remarkably strong. We, therefore, do not believe that, once assured of their own rights, they will seek to trespass wantonly upon the rights of others."

☞We clip the following paragraph from one of our exchanges. Col. Bachelder is known to many of our citizens as the publisher of a large map of the Battle of Gettysburg:

"A few days ago, at a private view, in New York, of Col. Bachelder's painting of the Battle of Gettysburg, just completed by Captain Walker, in answer to a question the party was informed that the painting represented the positions of 251 regiments and 78 batteries. At this moment a bright lad of ten years came to the front and said: 'Sir, will you be kind enough to point out to me the position of the Fifth New York Heavy Artillery?' The unusual sound of a child's voice attracted immediate attention, and the murmur of conversation was hushed, while every eye was directed to the spot indicated on the painting. A lady clad in deep mourning advanced and critically examined the locality. After explaining the action and movements of the battery, Col. Bachelder said: 'Why, my lad, do you ask for the position of the Fifth New York?' Pointing to the spot, the boy said: 'My father was killed there.' This was too much for the overflowing heart of the poor mother, who, bursting into a flood of tears, led her orphaned son from the room. The pathetic picture of this unexpected episode thrilled every heart with pity. Strong men turned away, and many an eye moistened with sympathy.

"The boy at the head of the class will state what are the dark ages of the world." Boy hesitates. "Next—Master Snikh can't you tell me what the dark ages were?" "I guess they were the ages just before the invention of spectacles." "Go to your seats."

ALBERT VON BEDENBERG and Gotlelb Bohner were hung on Wednesday, at Huntingdon, for murder of John Feighal, his wife Sarah and Scott Gepner, an orphan boy, who resided with them, on the evening of Wednesday, November 17th 1869.

THE LADIES' CLUB, of New York, recently changed their discussions from woman's suffrage to Hair preparations and Pimple Banishers. They declared that whose nature had not endowed them with beauty, it was their right—yea, their duty—to seek it where they could. So they all voted that Magnolia Balm overcame Sallowness, Rough Skin and Blemishes, and gave to the complexion a most distingue (Solferino) and marble-like appearance (dangerous to men, no doubt;) and that Lyon's Katharion made the Hair grow thick, soft and awful pretty, and moreover prevented it from turning grey. If the proprietors of these articles did not send the sixteen an invoice, they are not smart. march 4-1m

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY of Croup. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint.— It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, and Chest. No one can tell what it is to use it without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle.— Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the organs of the body; and by the persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says Brandreth's Pills cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1866.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended Brandreth's Pills as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for the malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They will do their work. Don't wait at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, rouse the liver, excite it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give so much to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive power, locking up the secretions and completely fix the patient for the dark and dismal shades and die.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Diseased Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lung in some way are diseased. Either Tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs or a mass of inflammation and sore dissolving. In each case what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The digestive organs have used their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach; the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient will begin to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are purely vegetable.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and has weighed 200 pounds, can be consulted every Monday, at the Green street office of Pulmonic Consumption. He has been so long engaged in this business that his decision as to the nature of a case he examines is unerring. Full directions accompany each medicine, so that any one can use them with perfect success, as they are entirely harmless.

Dr. Schenck, when he takes his patients into their rooms, sounds them with his Respirometer, and tells them what they can do. Those who call should bring their urine in the morning before eating or drinking. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sold by druggists everywhere, but Dr. Schenck professionally at No. 32 Read street, New York, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city stop 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

LECTURE.—Prof. Ferrier, of this place, is announced to deliver a Lecture in the Presbyterian church, in Emmittsburg, on Wednesday evening, March 23d, at 7½ o'clock, on "Witchcraft."

LITTLESTOWN VS. NEW OXFORD. —A correspondent informs us that Messrs. Weikert, Starr & Co., Littlestown, received 140 loads of Grain from the 21st to the 26th of February, principally Wheat. On the 26th they received 33 loads, including one hauled by Joseph Brown, of Carroll county, Md., that contained 189½ bushels of Wheat.

INCOME TAX.—As most persons are just now making up their statements of income for the year 1869, to be returned to the U. S. Assessor, we give on the first page of to-day's issue, an intelligible condensed statement of what is taxable and what is exempt. A reference to it will materially aid parties in making out correct returns.

LECTURE BY PROF. BAUGHER.—We understand that Rev. H. Louis Baugher, "Pearson Professor of Greek Language and Literature," in Pa. College, has consented to deliver a Lecture in Agricultural Hall on Friday evening next, March 18. It will be recollected that a year or more ago Prof. Baugher spent several months in Europe, and his Lecture, "Abroad on the Hills," will embrace incidents and impressions of his tour in Scotland, Wales, Switzerland, Italy, &c. A Christian gentleman and scholar—a shrewd, keen observer—and a pleasant talker—Prof. B. ought to and doubtless will draw a full house. Tickets 25 cents, the proceeds to be devoted to an object of general interest.

NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.—Occasionally we get letters from subscribers who seem to be ignorant of certain decisions in regard to newspapers. We publish them now for their benefit:

1st. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the pay.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

SALES.—The reader's attention is directed to the advertisement of sale of Real and Personal Property of Mrs. E. J. Irwin, deceased, to take place on Tuesday next—also Personal Property of Mrs. Swan on Wednesday next—and Personal Property of Wm. Ellis, deceased, Menallen township, on Thursday next.

A few years ago the Administrator of Abel T. Wright, deceased, sold the following tracts of land in Menallen township, the Store House and Lot in Bendersville to Jonas Rouanzahn for $350; 2 Acres of Timber land to E. N. McKinnn at $49.75 per acre; 5 Acres to Joseph Hollis, $36 per acre; 7 Acres to Wm. J. Peters, $12.50 per acre; 21 Acres to Wm. J. Peters, $5 per acre; 11 Acres to Isaac J. Wright, $4 per acre; 5 Acres of cleared land to Burkholder & Meals, $88 per acre; and 2 Acres to Samuel Ferguson, $101.25 per acre.

Josiah Grient sold 20 Acres, with improvements, Menallen township, to Burkhart Wert for $17.50.

Hiram Rex sold a small farm, same township, to Jacob C. Neely for $2500.

George Rex sold a house and lot in Bendersville to Mr. Mummert for $1100.

ENTERTAINMENTS.—On Friday and Saturday evenings Eugene Bliss, of the famous Jereme Bliss, of Philadelphia, gave two pleasant entertainments in Agricultural Hall, exhibiting considerable skill in sundry "slight-of-hand" performances, representations of comic characters, &c. "Punch and Juddy" was especially enjoyed by the young folks.

We did not hear Mr. Koontz's Readings on Monday evening but learned that he made a favorable impression, especially in the "The Bells" and "The Bagle Call." Mrs. Maude C. Cooke, of New York, who has been temporally sojourning in town, also read several pieces, her rendering of "The Beautiful Snow" being particularly spoken of as a fine performance.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Hewlett delivered his Lecture entitled "Muzzle that Dog." It was an argument for Prohibition of the Liquor traffic, interspersed with anecdotal matter and illustrative incidents. Mr. Hewlett has considerable capacity as a platform talker, and made a number of capital points, holding the close attendence of his audience for an hour and a half. We are requested by the members of Gen. Reynolds Lodge of Good Templars, under whose auspices Mr. H. lectured, to express to the citizens who were present on the occasion the thanks of the Lodge for their encouragement and liberal patronage.

☞It seems from the following item in the last Shippensburg News, that Henry Yanch, whose arrest for burglary in East Berlin we recently noticed, had been previously operating in the neighborhood o Shippensburg:

THIEF CAUGHT.—Some days since the Post Master of this place received a letter from East Berlin, Adams county, stating that a thief had been arrested in that place, and on his person was found a pocket book, bearing the name of A. M. Engle, and inquiring if a person by that name lived in this locality. The letter also contained a portion of the lining of the pocket book. Mr. Engle, who resides near this place, was duly notified, and on examination, recognized the lining, and said that it belonged to a pocket book stolen from him some months ago. Our readers will remember the circumstance, as we made mention of it in our local columns. The thief's name accompanied the letter. Mr. Engle stated further that a man by that name at one time was in his service. The Adams county papers give the name of the Berlin thief as Henry Yanch.

POSTAGE ON NEWSPAPERS.—The question having arisen whether a subscriber living in the county, but who receives his county paper at the post-office outside the county, can receive his paper free of postage, the editor of the Doylestown Democrat wrote the Post-Office Department on the subject, and received the following reply:—

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1870.

SIR: In reply to your letter of January 24th, I have to say, that bona fide subscribers to weekly newspapers can receive the same, free of postage, if they reside in the county in which the paper is printed and published, even if the office to which the paper is sent is within the county, provided it is the office at which they regularly receive their mail matter.

GRANTED.—On Tuesday the Court granted a Tavern License to Jacob Stock. Judge Fisher filed a written opinion adverse to granting the license, but was overruled by his associates, Judges Kuhn and McCurdy.

As this case has excited more than usual interest, we give in full the opinions filed in the case.

OPINIONS OF JUDGES KUHN AND M'CURDY. In the matter of the Petition of Jacob Stock to keep an Inn or Public House of entertainment in the Borough of Gettysburg:

We regret exceedingly to differ with the Hon. Presiding Judge on the subject of granting a License to Jacob Stock; but after carefully considering the subject in all its bearings, we see no reason why a license should be withheld from him and granted to others. The license law makes no distinction. One man coming here with the proper recommendation, has as good a right to expect a license as another; and that Jacob Stock, coming here with more than an ordinarily good recommendation, is as much entitled to a license as any other man that may apply; that the poor and humble travelers are as much entitled to have a place provided for their accommodation as the rich and more refined; that the public morals are no more (if as much) endangered by the one as the other; and that the community will never be purged of the curse of intemperance by singling out one man and opposing his license, while others are granted and permitted to violate the law without being punished; and that to be consistent, the whole must be included and every man made to stand on the same platform, and all be punished alike for every violation of the law. With these views we have concluded to grant him a License.

JOSEPH J. KUHN,
R. McCURDY.

OPINION OF JUDGE FISHER.

In the matter of the application of Jacob Stock, of the Borough of Gettysburg, for a license to keep an Inn or Tavern in said borough:

As I cannot agree with the majority of the Court in granting the application of the petitioner, it is respectful to them to give my reasons for my dissent.

I think the location not a suitable one, nor the applicant a suitable person. The location is in one of the smaller streets of the Borough, in which there is not much business done, and consequently the house will be more frequented by persons for the purpose of drinking than by strangers and travelers. The location is further objectionable, as it is in the vicinity of a Seminary for the education of young ladies.

As regards the fitness of the applicant, I would mention that on the hearing of a former petition presented by the applicant, in April last, to be licensed to keep an Inn or Tavern at the same place, evidence was given which tended to prove that several years ago he was a man of intemperate habits, but had reformed. In my opinion, the greatest evil that could be inflicted upon him would be to grant him a license to sell intoxicating drinks, and thus place him in a situation, the natural result of which would most likely be a relapse into his former habits of intemperance.

ROBERT J. FISHER.

BIERBOWER'S BEGGARS have become noted for their high flavor, and every body who knows anything about good Tobacco has got in the habit of going direct to his establishment in the northeast corner of the diamond—fully assured that they can get just what they want, the very best Segars, made of prime tobacco, highly-flavored, and what is better still sold at prices that can't be beat in or out of the city. Strangers can't mistake the place. "Punch" always stands at the door, good humoredly inviting the passer-by to enter and enjoy the good things to be found there —Segars, Smoking and Chewing Tobacco of the best brand, Merchaums, Pipes, &c.

CURE FOR COUGH OR COLD.—As soon as there is the slightest uneasiness of the Chest, with difficulty of breathing, or indications of Cough, take during the day a few "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Containing demulcent ingredients, they allay Pulmonary Irritation. Have them in readiness upon the first appearance of a Cold or Cough. 1t

BERGAW.—On the 10th ult., Rosy, daughter of David Bergaw, of Butler township, aged 4 years, 10 months and 22 days.

BELL.—On the 19th ult., at Mount Pleasant, Ohio, Mr. Andrew Bell, formerly of this place, aged about 53 years.

BAKER.—On the 5th ult., in Freedom township, Miss Maria E., daughter of John and Elizabeth Baker, aged 15 years and 7 days.

Dear Maria, thou hast left us,
To meet on earth no more;
But we trust that we shall meet thee
On that happier shore.

True, the sweet voice we used to hear
Hath left the earthly band;
But we hope that we shall join thee
In the far-off happy land.

Then, her loss grieves not, dear parents,
For it hath been for gain;
The sweet smiles that she hath left us
Shall ne'er have been in vain.

FESSER.—On the 26th ult., near Littlestown, Francis Winfield, son of John Fesser, aged 2 years 3 months and 1 day.

A CAPITAL NEW NOVEL.—"Red as a Rose is She," a new novel by the author of "Cometh up as a Flower," is a very vivid and charming love-story, in which the characters are drawn with unusual vigor, and the incidents have probability and freshness. "Cometh up as a Flower," and "Not Wisely, but too Well," the preceding novels by the same author; attracted no little attention on account of their spirited character-sketching; they exhibited, indeed, in this particular, a really striking power. "Red as a Rose" has the same quality. A better-drawn heroine, or one more truly full of a delicious human nature, no recent fiction has supplied. The interest of the story is most absorbing, and, altogether, it is the freshest and most readable book of the season. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York, who will mail a copy to any address, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents; or the three books by the same author, for $1.50. 1t

☞Pimples on the Face, Eruptions, Blotches, Scrofulous diseases, and all sores arising from impure blood, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Alterative Extract or Golden Medical Discovery. For Bronchilitis, Laryngitis and all chronic, severe or lingering coughs nothing equals it.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is something wonderful in the way in which Oak Hall has eclipsed all other clothing houses. With no special advantages at first, and many discouragements to contend with, it gradually crept up to the houses which affected to dispise it, and then successfully competed with them, and then passed them, and finally has left them far in the distance. In extent of business, reliability, low prices and good workmanship, there is nothing in the clothing line to compare with Oak Hall. 1t

FERTILITY OF THE SOIL.

It is often a question in choosing farms, how cheap is the land? and how near is the market? But a question of quite as much importance is, what are the facilities for keeping up the fertility of the soil? More common sense is required to judge properly of this than of any other question possible. The price of land and the market question can be ascertained on the spot, and at the time; but the manure question is one which requires judgment and foresight to determine satisfactorily.

The American Farmer, of Baltimore, says the great Virginia cry now is, "smaller grain-fields and larger pastures," meaning thereby that more home-made manure is one of the essentials of good farming. We of the North have partially learned this lesson already; but a look at many of our neighbors' fields, and of our own, for that matter, will show that we have rather got the lesson by rote, as we often do our learning in the schools, and not that we thoroughly understand its importance. We have rarely known a farmer near a large town, who kept his farm in a high state of fertility, who did not make money by farming; while we have noticed those who failed were usually those who did not estimate the importance of high manuring, or neglected it if they did know how. Yet we have known a few who have failed in attempting to manure well, through acting on the idea that manure was profitable at any cost. This is a great mistake. The whole subject is one requiring a great amount of good judgment—the exercise of the strongest common sense.

BATHING HORSES.—A correspondent says he washes sweated horses in cold water with beneficial results, both in summer and winter. After washing, the animal should be rubbed dry, as far as practical and the legs especially. Should the hair on them be too long to admit of this being sufficiently done, flannel bandages should be put on, and a woolen rug thrown loosely over, but without the roller. In the course of an hour the horse will be tolerably dry, and should then have another rub down, and be clothed in the ordinary manner. If horses were treated in a more rational manner than is often the case, with pure air and scrupulous cleanliness, disease would be far less common.

What more refreshing to a man after a hard day's shooting, or other laborious exercise, than a warm or cold bath? And I believe it to be so to the horse. To the tired huntera warm foot-bath and fomentation, if the animal is sufficiently quiet, is most refreshing. Some years ago I visited the royal stables at Buckinghan Palace. There, as I was informed—and at the time witnessed the operation—every horse, summer and winter, was washed from head to foot with cold water, after returning from work, no matter whether it had been out one hour or six. After the ablution, scraping, scrubbing, etc., a kind of web cloth was thrown over to admit of evaporation, and the horse was afterward rubbed down and clothed as usual, in the course of an hour or two. I consider the plan rational and conducive to the health of the horse, if only ordinary care is taken.

BREEDING sows require a variety of nourishing food, clover, hay, milk, boiled potatoes, bran, etc. Do not expose to cold winds or drifting snow.

SOME farmers leave their grindstones exposed to the hot sun, in summer, causing them to harden, besides injuring the wooden frames.

THE WORLD,

DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE

Reapers and Mowers.

A careful examination of these machines will commence any one of their superior merits over all others, in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability to work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those in want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives, cutting five and a half feet of grain and four feet eight inches in grass; No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.

We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTOMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Rake out, and is attached to no other machine except the Dodge Machine, the Ohio and Buckeye patent.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

John Swartzlet, Sen.,	Henry Culp,
Ephraim Lady,	Henry King,
George Lady,	Elisha Penrose,
Jonathan Wisler,	David Stewart,
James Mickley,	W. Rose White,
Daniel Bastie,	J. J. Kerr,
John Bender,	Andrew Weikert,
John Eckert,	Wm. Bigham,
Wm. Funt,	John Slaine,
Cornelius Lott,	John N. Hoffman,
Wm. Golden,	John N. Boyer,
Wm. Rose.

Also, WIRE-TOOTH HAY RAKES, including the celebrated Brandt Rake and Self-clearing Rake. Also, PLOUGHS, FANNING MILLS, AND FARM IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Persons wishing to examine machines will find them at the warehouse of JOHN WILLS & SONS, Gettysburg, Pa., or at the residence of the subscriber, 2 miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road. Persons wanting Circulars will address the subscriber, Gettysburg, Pa.

WM. WIBLE, Agent.

STILL AHEAD!

HOFFHEINS'

REAPER & MOWER,

One of the Greatest Machines of the Age,

IS superior to any other Machine now in use, as will excuse say that will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given general satisfaction. I would also inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain. It cuts ledged grain admirably, which is a great item in Machines to a farmer. It can be used in a hand rake as well as a self-raker. It cuts 4 feet 2 inches in grain, and 5 feet 10 inches in grass. The seat contains bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a Hinge Mower as well as a Combined Machine.

A full trial of the Machine can be had.

The SETHERMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great seat of self-known BRADY RAKE, for sale and Reaper and Mower attached.

Also, THE KEMBLE AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILL, the best in use. Has been improved, for many years a great favorite among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, and two cattle power, and is located in the county.

Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.

Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Battle-field Hotel, or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, between the Hanoverroad and the Baltimore pike.

EAGLE LIVERY,

Sale & Exchange Stables,

Opposite the Eagle Hotel, Chambersburg street,

GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.

THE undersigned have opened a new LIVERY, SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLE, in this place, and are prepared to offer superior accommodations in this line. We have provided ourselves with

of the latest styles, and are determined to suit the public as to prices. Horses will be well cared for, without stint or delay, and perfectly reliable—none of your "old cripples," purchased "at an auction."

Riding parties can always be accommodated and comfortable equipments furnished.

Parties, large or small, can get just what they want on the shortest notice and reasonable terms.

Visitors to the Battle-field can obtain good and reliable drivers furnished if desired.

Parties conveyed to and from the Depot upon the arrival and departure of every train.

Horses bought, sold or exchanged, and always a chance for trading given.
